NOW FOR BASEBALL

As Our Daddies Played It.

Tomorrow afternoon will witness a thrilling game of baseball at Wells Park. The married men of Kahului had the temerity to challenge the married men of Wailuku for a tussle on the diamond, and the sporty dads of Wailuku snapped at the chance, the losers to pay for a dinner for the two teams. Excitement is running high, and the game will be played for blood, and beer. Uncle John Tallant was booked for short stop for the Wailukus, but the Kahuluis bucked at the proposition and a substitute will be played.

Tomorrow afternoon, a procession will be formed and march to the grounds in the following order:—

Carriage, containing all available doctors and surgeons.

Small boy, with hamper of court plaster and arnica.

The Kahului Has Beens.

The Wailuku Never Was-es.

The Weeping Relatives.

An Ambulance.

A Hearse.

Citizens and small kids on foot, horse-back and in carriages.

The K. H. B.s will play the following team:—

J. Walsh, p.; W. Mawae, c.; W. Mountcastle, 1b.; J. H. Walker, 2b.; R. A. Wadworth, 3b.; J. J. Correll, (Capt.) ss.; J. Vasconcellos, rf.; C. B. Cottrell, cf.; J. Kirkland, lf.; W. Nawai and Dr. Dinegar, substitutes.

The W. N. W.s will line up as follows:—

W. H. Cornwell, Jr., c.; S. Kellin, p.; W. E. Bal, 1b.; W. T. Robinson, 2b.; M. Faustino, 3b.; Jas. L. Coke, (Capt.) ss.; G. B. Robertson, rf.; David Crowell, cf.; T. B. Lyons, lf.; W. F. King and C. D. Lufkin, substitutes.

Umpires, Geo. H. Cummings, E. B. Carley.

There has been only one hitch, but that came near breaking up the game. The K. H. B.s insisted on using a bat one by twelve, twenty four feet long, and the W. N. W.s insisted on a bat one by twelve, twelve feet long. A compromise was effected however, by which a bat one by twelve, eighteen feet long will be en regle, and such a game will be witnessed tomorrow afternoon, as has never been seen before at Wells Park.

Wailuku Precinct Club Meeting.

Last Thursday evening was the time appointed for the Republican Precinct Club to meet and name their choice as candidate for the legislature.

Promptly at the hour the Court house was filled with enthusiastic supporters of the different candidates and no sooner had Judge Kalua called the meeting to order than Attorney N. W. Aluli set the ball rolling by placing in nomination for representative the name of J. K. Kahookela.

In support of the candidacy of Mr. Kahookela, Mr. Aluli produced a petition which had been circulated by Mr. Kahookela, and which bound its signers to support Mr. Kahookela. Mr. Aluli stated that the petition contained the majority of names on the republican precinct roll, as well as the names of many democrats and home rulers, and urged that such a petition could not be disregarded by the meeting, and that if Mr. Kahookela did not receive the recommendation of the club, about all the signers of the petition would bolt the ticket.

This naturally fell like a bucket of ice-water on the members of the club who had supposed that the meeting would have the right to use its best judgment in the selection of a candidate, and many who had felt quite friendly to Kahookela were aroused to rebellion by this attempt of his to force his name on the meeting.

A motion was then made that three names be sent up for consideration of the District Committee, in the order of their strength before the meeting, but Kahookela's friends opposed this, one of them going so far as to state that if any other names were sent up, Kahookela would have no chance of nomination. The motion carried however, and Mr. L. M. Baldwin, in an eloquent address placed in nomination, the name of S. Kellin, which was received with a burst of applause which showed where the real choice of the meeting lay. The name of Mr. A. N. Hayselden was also placed in nomination.

Mr. Kahookela, recognizing that his fight for nomination was lost, did a very graceful thing by withdrawing his name in favor of Mr. Kellin, who upon ballot being taken received all but a very few votes. Mr. Kahookela, in a short address stated that Mr. Kellin had promised not to make any fight for the nomination, and this was true. Even on the afternoon of Thursday, Mr. Kellin had stated that he was not a candidate, but the meeting had its own ideas of who would be the best and most popular man, and without regarding Mr. Kellin's private feelings, the nomination was tendered to him in so determined and enthusiastic a manner that the only thing he could do was to accept it.

As candidate for the senate, the names of A. N. Kepoikai, W. F. Pogue, C. H. Dickey and A. N. Hayselden were presented and the bulk of the votes were cast for A. N. Kepoikai, who says that he will work hard to prevent his own nomination by the District Committee.
